7. Review requirements.

- (a) Preapplication: The applicant shall obtain a permitted use verification, as applicable, prior to filing a Type C site and development plan application. The applicant shall schedule an appointment and meet with the county administrator or designee and technical assistance staff to discuss the application, the procedures for review and approval, and the applicable regulations and requirements for the review type. The county administrator or designee shall determine the level of application detail and specific methodologies required for petitions seeking Type C development approval. Interested parties are permitted to attend and participate in the preapplication meeting. Public notice shall be mailed at least five calendar days in advance of the preapplication meeting to the current address (based upon the most current tax rolls in the office of the Leon County Property Appraiser) of each property owner within 500 feet of the project and to neighborhood and business associations.
- (b) Application: The applicant shall submit the required site and development plan to the county administrator or designee for distribution to the DRC.
- (c) Determination of completeness: Within ten working days after receipt of the application for site and development plan approval, the director of growth and environmental management or designee shall determine whether the application contains all required information at the required level of detail; and shall advise the applicant of all areas of deficiency. This notification shall specify the additional information and level of detail required in order to meet the requirements of this section.

In the event that an applicant fails to submit the required additional information within 30 calendar days of the date of the notice of deficiency, the director of growth and environmental management or designee shall consider the application to be withdrawn. The director of growth and environmental management or designee may grant extensions of up to 30 days at the request of the applicant; provided any such request for an extension is received prior to the expiration of the relevant time period.

Upon a determination of completeness, the county administrator or designee shall refer the application to the DRC.

- (d) Public notice: Public notice of the DRC meeting shall be given at least five calendar days in advance of the meeting by publication in a newspaper of regular and general circulation in the county. In addition, written notice shall be mailed at least five calendar days in advance of the DRC meeting to the current address (based upon the most current tax rolls in the office of the Leon County Property Appraiser) of each property owner within 500 feet of the project and to registered neighborhood and business associations. The public notice shall advise such persons of the application, and specify that no testimony may be heard by the DRC at their meeting since it is an administrative review and not subject to quasi-judicial provisions.

- (e) DRC meetings: Meetings of the DRC are administrative in nature and not subject to quasi-judicial provisions. No testimony shall be received from any applicant or member of the public during the course of the DRC meeting, although the meetings shall be open to public attendance. Each member of the DRC is responsible for providing proposed written findings which identify whether a development meets the applicable criteria and standards of this chapter and those imposed by other applicable ordinances, regulations and/or adopted standards of the county. The proposed written findings shall be transmitted to other members of the DRC, the applicant, and made available for public inspection at least one working day prior to consideration by the DRC. The proposed written findings shall be the basis for a recommendation by each DRC member to the DRC as a whole to approve, approve with conditions, deny, or continue consideration of an application to a date and time certain.
- (f) DRC review: The DRC shall review the plans at any scheduled meeting, and shall prepare an itemized list of findings of fact which support a recommendation of approval, approval with conditions, or denial of the application; or shall request additional material and data determined to be necessary to undertake the required review and continue its review to a date and time certain. The DRC shall issue a written recommendation to the applicant and the Board of County Commissioners to approve, approve with conditions, or deny the application. The application shall be advertised and scheduled to be heard at the next available date for public hearings before the Board of County Commissioners. However, the public hearing on the application shall be continued if the applicant, or any other person qualifying as a party as defined in Article XI of Chapter 10 at Division 9 of this Code who has filed comments in response to subsection (d) above, requests a quasi-judicial hearing on the recommendations of the DRC within 15 days of issuance of the DRC recommendations. Requests shall be made in writing and directed to the Office of the County Attorney, and shall include the project name, application number, and a description of the facts upon which the recommendation is challenged and any argument in support thereof. Failure to timely file a request will result in waiver of a quasi-judicial hearing on the application. Hearings shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures outlined in Section 10-1485, except that the hearing officer shall issue a recommended order to the Board of County Commissioners, including written findings of fact, conclusions of law, and a recommendation to approve, approve with conditions or deny the application. make a recommendation on the application to the Board of County Commissioners. After a public hearing, the Board of County Commissioners shall approve, approve with conditions, deny the application, or continue their consideration to a date and time certain.

(g) Hearings before the Board of County Commissioners. Upon receipt of the recommended order from the hearing officer, the Board of County Commissioners shall take up the matter in accordance with the procedures outlined in Section 10-1849 of this Code.

(h) (g) Finality of decision. The decision of the Board of County Commissioners may be reviewed by the Circuit Court.

SECTION 3. Chapter 10, Section 10-1489, of the Code of Laws of Leon County, Florida, is hereby amended as follows:

Sec. 10-1489. Hearings before the Appeals to Board of County Commissioners.

(1) ~~In the event that a site and development plan review decision has been appealed to the Board of County Commissioners on or before the effective date of this ordinance, but has not been heard by the Board of County Commissioners.~~

(2) ~~Appeals filed after the effective date of this ordinance.~~

(B) Prior to the Board of County Commissioners' hearing on a Type C site and development plan application ~~review on appeal of a decision on a site and development plan~~, no party person may communicate with any commissioner regarding the case.

(C) ~~All determinations of standing will be made by the county attorney.~~

(C) (D) All hearings shall be open to the public and shall be advertised in a newspaper of general circulation not less than 14 days prior to the date of the hearing. Public comment on the recommended order shall be taken prior to the argument by the parties pursuant to subsection (G). Public comment shall be limited to three minutes per person.

(D) ~~(E)~~ All hearings will be scheduled within 30 days of receipt of the recommended order and record of the decision being reviewed ~~appealed~~.

(E) ~~(F)~~ The record before the Board of County Commissioners shall consist of the complete record of the proceedings before the hearing officer ~~lower reviewing body~~.

(F) ~~(G)~~ The participants before the Board of County Commissioners shall be the parties applicant, appropriate county staff, and any other party, as that term is defined in section 10-1621, Leon County Code of Laws, who participated at the hearing before the hearing officer ~~lower reviewing body~~.

(G) ~~(H)~~ The applicant shall be limited to a total of 20 minutes to present his or her argument, as shall the county staff. Any other party, as that term is defined in section 10-1621, Leon County Code of Laws, who participated at the hearing before the hearing officer ~~lower reviewing body~~ shall be limited to three minutes to present his or her argument. For good cause shown the chairman may grant additional time.

(H) ~~(I)~~ At the conclusion of the hearing, the Board of County Commissioners shall render a decision approving, approving with conditions, or denying the application for site and development plan. The Board may adopt the hearing officer's recommended order as its final order and must include written findings of fact and conclusions of law to support its decision. In its final order, the Board may modify or reject the hearing officer's conclusions of law which are based upon sections of the Leon County Code of Laws, 2010 Comprehensive Plan or any other rule, ordinance or law of the County. When rejecting or modifying such conclusion of law, the Board must state with particularity its reasons for rejecting or modifying such conclusion of law and must find that the substituted or modified conclusion of law is more reasonable than that which was rejected or modified. The Board may not reject or modify the hearing officer's findings of fact unless the Board determines from a review of the entire record, and states with particularity in its final order, that the findings of fact were not based on competent substantial evidence or that the proceedings on which the findings were based did not comply with the essential requirements of law. If the Board issues a final order approving the application with conditions different from those in the recommended order, it shall state with particularity in its final order the reasons for requiring additional conditions with citations to the record to support that decision. affirming the decision of the lower reviewing body, reversing the decision of the lower reviewing body, or remanding the case to the lower reviewing body for further consideration. In the event the denial of an application by the lower reviewing body is reversed by the Board of County Commissioners, the lower reviewing body shall be directed to issue an approval of the application.

(I) ~~(J)~~ Judicial review. Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Board of County Commissioners on an application under appeal may challenge the decision in the Circuit Court for the Second Judicial Circuit, but only if the person participated at the hearing. If the aggrieved person decides to challenge the decision, he or she shall file a petition for writ of certiorari with the clerk to the circuit court not later than 30 days after the decision of the Board of County Commissioners is filed with the clerk to the Board of County Commissioners. The record before the circuit court shall consist of the complete record of the proceedings before the Board of County Commissioners.

SECTION 4. All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict, except to the extent of any conflicts with the Tallahassee-Leon County 2010 Comprehensive Plan as amended, which provisions shall prevail over any part of this ordinance which is inconsistent, either in whole or in part, with the said Comprehensive Plan.

SECTION 5. If any word, phrase, clause, section or portion of this ordinance shall be held invalid or unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, such portion or words shall be deemed a separate and independent provision and such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions thereof.

SECTION 6. This ordinance shall become effective as provided by law.
